Riding the Rear

Wow, what a scorching hot summer we are having. No complaints as they are already talking about Deetroit Lions football already. For all you Lions cool aide drinkers out there, the bet of the week is can the Lions win more games this season than I can drink tanks in a day? (for obvious reasons, no over or under here please)

One correction to the float plan, Muscammot raft off is the weekend of August 14th. I'm sure it will be another cold & alcohol free day in the bay. Congrats to Ron & Colleen on their official tying the knot. Ron is on a 30 day probation from having any Jagermeister. As for Colleen, what happens in the Casino... stays in the Casino.

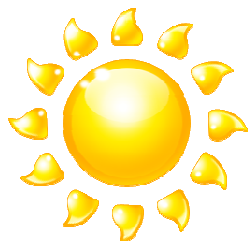

We have been very fortunate to have some great weather & good times at our outing this year. Water levels are holding there own and so are the gas prices. We have a few outings coming up this month so hopefully we will have a good turn out and have some more fun.
